Current Directions in Psychological Science is the bimonthly journal that provides a timely source of information spanning the entire spectrum of scientific psychology and its applications. CD publishes brief (2,000-2,500 words), scholarly reviews that focus on emerging trends, controversies, and issues of enduring importance to the science of psychology.

CD Submission Policy: Most CD reviews are commissioned by the Editor, but readers are encouraged to submit brief letters describing proposed reviews. These letters should be sent to Alan E. Kazdin, Editor, Current Directions in Psychological Science, Department of Psychology, Yale University, P.O. Box 208205, New Haven, CT 06520-8205.

Current Directions in Psychological Science is indexed in Psychological Abstracts/PsychInfo, Social Sciences Citation Index (SSCI), Research Alert, and Current Contents/Social & Behavioural Sciences.
