INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS The editor invites submissions utilizing all methods of inquiry. Both empirical and theoretical papers are considered, but papers that combine well-developed theoretical frameworks with careful empirical work are particularly appreciated. All topics related to the field of education broadly conceived are welcomed. It is the policy of the Record only to review articles that are not being considered simultaneously elsewhere.

Authors should use the online submission system available at www.tcrecord.org. All manuscripts must conform to the guidelines of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association or The Chicago Manual of Style. Manuscripts should be accompanied by an abstract of no more than 200 words. Please consult recent issues of the Record for models of style and referencing. Complete guidelines for preparation of manuscripts are available at the TCR web site. To ensure anonymity in the review process, authors' names, institutional affiliations, and other identifying material should be placed on the title page only.

INDEXED/ABSTRACTED Education, Book Review Digest, Historical Abstracts, Sociological Abstracts, Psychological Abstracts, Social Science Citation Index, Book Review Index, Educational Administration Abstracts, Sociology of Education Abstracts, College Students Personnel Abstracts, Current Contents: Social and Behavioral Sciences, and Exceptional Child Education Abstracts.
