Acknowledgement of Peer Reviewers

We wish to acknowledge with appreciation the scholars and experts who gave their time to serve as peer reviewers for papers submitted to the Review in the last year, some of which are published in this issue, while others, regrettably, were not accepted for publication. Special thanks also go to the associate editors and members of the advisory board who have devoted time to reviewing some of the papers. Their names are not included in this list as they appear on the front cover of the Review.

The African Development Review relies entirely on the benevolence and dedication of the intellectual community for its continuity, advancement and growing reputation as a credible analytical resource on African development issues. The contribution of the referees is, therefore, greatly valued and will continue to be appreciated. If you wish to serve as a referee in the double-blind review process for this journal please contact by email, fax, phone or post: the Editor, Mr Temitope W. Oshikoya at w.oshikoya@afdb.org. The address, phone and fax numbers are provided on the back cover of this issue. We look forward to your support.
