The photographs on pp. 21 and 29 are reproduced by courtesy of Ministero per i Beni Culturali e Ambientali, Museo Hendrik C. Andersen, Rome, and Elena di Majo, Director of the museum. Millicent Bell thanks Rosella Mamoli Zorzi, Professor of North American Studies at the Universita Ca’ Foscari di Venezia, and Elena di Majo for their help. The collection Henry James: Amato Ragazzo: Lettere a Hendrik C. Andersen, 1899–1915, a cura di Rosella Mamoli Zorzi, postfazione di Elena di Majo, Marsilio, Venice, 2000, is the only publication of all the known surviving letters, only some of which had been published previously. She is also grateful for the assistance of the Library of Congress, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum archives, the Clifton Waler Barrett Library at the University of Virginia, and Suzanne Lecoeq, curator of the Mundaneum in Mons, Belgium. A recent selection of James’s letters to Andersen can be found in Dearly Beloved Friends: Henry James’s Letters to Younger Men, edited by Susan E. Gunter and Steven H. John, University of Michigan Press, 2001.
