License Agreement & Copyright Transfer Information

1. The correspondence authors have copyright and are entitled to submit the manuscript for publication. All co-authors have been informed of the contents of the paper and its submission. The citation of unpublished results of other research groups has been authorized by them.
2. The author must inform the editor of manuscripts submitted, soon to be submitted, or in press at other journals that have a bearing on the manuscript being submitted.
3. The work has not already appeared in this or a slightly modified form in another publication, nor has it been submitted to another journal. Please note that this restriction does not apply to the publication of a full paper incorporating the results discussed in a short communication.
4. Manuscripts, original illustrations, and proofs are kept by the publisher for two months after publication of an article, during which time they will be returned to the author on request. Thereafter, this material will be disposed of.
5. With the acceptance of the manuscript for publication in Archiv der Pharmazie - Chemistry in Life Sciences, WILEY-VCH acquires exclusively for three years from the date on which the article is published and thereafter for the full term of copyright, including any future extensions, on a non-exclusive basis all publishing rights including those of prepublication, reprinting, translating, other forms of reproduction (e.g. by photocopy, microform or other means, including machine-readable forms like CD-ROM, CD-I, DVD, diskettes, electronic storage and publishing through Local Area Networks, Intranet and Internet, and other data networks) and other forms of distribution e.g. by Document Delivery Services of this article worldwide. This includes the right of WILEY-VCH to transfer to third parties the partial or full rights. Moreover, the provisions of the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany apply.
6. In the case of an Article prepared under a U.S. Government contract or grant, the U.S. Government may reproduce, without charge, all, or portions of the Article and may authorize others to do so, for official U.S. Government purposes only, if the U.S. Government contract or grant so requires. In such case, you grant to WILEY-VCH the rights mentioned in Section 5 only non-exclusively.

I hereby state that the above conditions 1, 2, and 3 for the publication of the manuscript are fulfilled and that I agree to the conditions 4 and 5
