

Social Science and Humanities Journals

"It's always exciting to be able to tell our users about a new e-package and this is such a good one!"

Librarian, United States

The 380+ Social Science and Humanities journals from Blackwell Publishing cover a broad range of core academic disciplines and include many of the leading titles at the forefront of their fields. The journals are published in partnership with over 200 scholarly and professional societies with international memberships.

Top quality articles from the world's most highly-regarded academic authors are routinely published in the journals. Topics covered range from Aristotle to African Politics, from Law to Linguistics, and from International Finance to Family Therapy.

Among the distinguished titles, ten are ranked number 1 in their discipline in the 2004 ISI Social Science Citation Index. More than a fifth of all the ISI-cited articles in agricultural economics, public administration, geography, mathematical methods, demography, family studies and the history of social sciences appear in Blackwell Publishing journals.
