Editors' Disclosures at IJCP • www.IJCP.org

Dated: April 2009

IJCP Editor-in-Chief and Associate Editors make disclosures using standards defined in IJCP guidelines for authors (using guidelines current at time of the request for disclosure): "disclose potential conflicts of interest, including all relevant financial interests (e.g. employment, significant share ownership, patent rights, consultancy, research funding) in any company or institution that might benefit from the publication (or state 'none')" ... "might consider, as a guide for financial disclosures, reporting interests where the sums concerned are above USD10,000 or the equivalent of >5% of an author's gross income" ... "do not need to report the sums concerned." Next planned update to this document: 12 months from date above.
