For the manuscripts published in 2004 (volume 24) the graph shows the number of manuscripts and the time (in weeks) from the paper arriving in the Editorial Office to the authors receiving the reviewers' comments.

Having received the comments of the reviewers, the authors are then requested to submit a revised manuscript which incorporates any suggested changes. For the manuscripts published in 2004 (volume 24) the graph shows the number of manuscripts and the time (in weeks) from the revised paper arriving in the Editorial Office to the paper being accepted (this may include the time for a re-review, or for further changes to be made).

For the manuscripts published in 2004 (volume 24) the graph shows the number of manuscripts and the time (in months) from the paper being accepted to the time it appears in the online journal.