

SPECIAL ISSUE: CALL FOR PAPERS

GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS: PROMOTING PARTICIPATION AND HEALTH IN OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

Introduction

In March 2013, there will be a special issue of Occupational Therapy International on the process of developing and sustaining global partnerships and their outcomes in the areas of education, research or practice.

Scope

Health care scholars, practitioners and educators are invited to submit a manuscript on topics related to how occupational therapists develop, maintain, and sustain global partnerships and global partnership outcomes that promote participation and health.

Manuscripts are especially welcome in the following areas:

1. Research studies that examine how therapists develop, maintain, and sustain global partnerships and their outcomes
2. Literature reviews: Meta-analyses or meta-syntheses in a specific topic area related to global partnerships
3. Model program descriptions or case studies that describe the development and outcomes of global partnerships
4. Descriptions of innovative partnerships in progress

All manuscripts will be expected to:

Discuss the implications of the partnership for clinical practice, education and/or scholarship and the cross-cultural adaptations or implications of the partnership. Author guidelines can be found under the "For Contributors" section: <http://wileyonlinelibrary.com/journal/OTI>

Submission

The deadline for the receipt of Manuscripts is May 31, 2012 with anticipated publication in March 2013. Manuscripts should be submitted online at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/oti>

Further information

Please contact the guest editors, Anne Marie Witchger Hansen, Ed.D, OTR/L (hansen@duq.edu); Jaime Phillip Muñoz, PhD, OTR/L (munoz@duq.edu), & Yolanda Suarez-Balcazar, PhD (ysuarez@uic.edu). These editors will give initial feedback on manuscripts before the usual, double-blind review process.