Dear Author:

Your article has been accepted for publication in a forthcoming issue of Transplant Infectious Disease.

To pay some of the costs of publishing Transplant Infectious Disease, the journal assesses color charges for all color art published, except for those in the “Images in Transplant Infectious Diseases” section. Articles published in that section do not have a color fee. The charges are as below.

 Each subsequent figure = $100 each

Please indicate whether or not you accept the charge(s) by filling in this form and returning it to the above address via fax or email within 48 hours.

Authors from developing countries may be eligible for a discounted rate or waiver for color charges. Please notify the editorial office if you would like to find out if you qualify for this.

Charges for Transplant Infectious Disease are not voluntary. Your signature on this form constitutes a binding agreement to pay fully for any charges incurred in the publication of your article, within 30 days of receipt of invoice. If we do not hear from you within 48 hours of this letter, please be advised that your color figures will be published in color online and will be printed in black and white in the print journal.
