The Journal of Research in Reading is planning a special issue on literacy and technology, scheduled for publication in 2009.

We invite submission of original articles reporting research in which technology has been used to facilitate or support the development of literacy skills, or on ways in which literacy processes are affected by technology in educational, occupational and recreational settings.

All papers will be subject to the journal's peer review process.

The deadline for submission of papers is 1st March 2008.
