Disclosure Statement
Professor Dr Hans-Ulrich Wittchen

Editor of International Journal of Methods in Psychiatric Research

Research Support

Professor Wittchen has served on the advisory board and has received honoraria and travel reimbursement from industry during the past 5 years that might be perceived as constituting a conflict of interest: Sanofi, Aventis, Pfizer, Organon, Lilly, Lundbeck, Novartis and Essex Pharma.

Editor or Editorial Board Member

Boards and committees

Member of many international groups, such as the Cross-National Group, WHO-CIDI Advisory and Editorial Committee, International Consortium of Psychiatric Epidemiology, World Mental Health Survey Consortium; he is also member of the Anxiety, Stress and OCD Task Forces for DSM-V and serves as advisor for the revision of the ICD-11.

Secretary and Council member of the European College of Neuropsychopharmacology (ECNP) and member of the steering board of the European Brain Council (EBC).

June 20th 2011