Articles should be double spaced, with ample margins, and bear the title of the contribution, name(s) of the author(s) and the address where the work was carried out. The full contact details (including e-mail address) of the author(s) for correspondence should be included. All pages should be numbered. We would like to encourage authors to make sure that the language used does not convey any unintended bias.

Length: The preferred length for articles is 6000-7000 words. (If you wish to submit a shorter or longer one, please contact us. We will be happy to advise).

Tables and captions to illustrations. Tables must be presented on separate pages and not included as part of the text. The captions to illustrations should be gathered together and also typed out on a separate sheet. Tables should be numbered by Roman numerals, and figures by Arabic numerals. The approximate position of tables and figures should be indicated in the manuscript. Captions should include keys to symbols.

Figures. Please supply one set of artwork in a finished form, preferably electronically, suitable for reproduction. If this raises problems, please contact us.

References should be indicated in the typescript by giving the author's name, with the year of publication in parentheses. If several papers by the same author and from the same year are cited, a, b, c, etc. should be put after the year of publication. The references should be listed in full at the end of the article in the following standard form:

- For books:* TEICHLER, U. (2007) Higher Education Systems. Conceptual Frameworks, Comparative Perspectives, Empirical Findings (Rotterdam, Sense Publishers).
- For articles:* KEHM, B. M. (2007) Quo vadis doctoral education? New European approaches in the context of global changes, European Journal of Education, 42, pp. 307-319
- For chapters within books:* KEATING, D. (1996) Habits of mind for a learning society, in: DAVID R. OLSON & NANCY TORRANCE (Eds) The Handbook of Education and Human Development (Oxford, Blackwell Publishers).

Titles of journals should not be abbreviated.

Abstract: Please send a one-paragraph (200-250 words) abstract with your article for inclusion on the publisher's website.

Key words: Please provide five or six keywords for the website. This is very important for web searches.

E-proofing: Proofs are sent to authors as a PDF file. When the proof is ready, authors receive an email containing a link to the website on which they can download the PDF and find instructions on how to correct the proofs. Proofs must be returned to the Journal at the above address or by fax or e-mail within the number of days indicated. Authors are reminded that only corrections to printer's errors should be made. Rewriting of material originally submitted will be disallowed at the editors' discretion. Please contact Christina Keyes if you find any major problems.

Author's copy: Authors receive one copy of the Journal in which their article is published, as well as the article in a PDF format as soon as the issue appears on the publisher's website. The e-mail contains the Guidelines for Usage, setting out rights to distribute the PDF on a non-commercial basis.

Copyright. It is a condition of publication that authors vest copyright in their articles, including abstracts, in Blackwell Publishers Ltd. This enables us to ensure full copyright protection and to disseminate the article, and the Journal, to the widest possible readership in print and electronic formats as appropriate. Authors may, of course, use the article elsewhere after publication without prior permission from the Publishers, subject to the terms outlined on the Copyright transfer form.
