Instructions to Contributors

1. To submit your manuscript electronically, please go to http://www.ijer-pa.org/submission.html and follow the instructions. For hard copy submission, send four copies of a manuscript together with a signed letter of submission and a floppy disk containing a properly prepared pdf file containing the manuscript to the Editorial Office. The Japanese Economic Review Japanese Economic Association, Sankyo Bldg. 703, 1-7-10, Itabashi, Chiyoda City, Tokyo, 102-0072, Japan.

2. Manuscripts should be written in English, and should be accompanied by a letter of submission stating that they are original unpublished work, not submitted for consideration elsewhere. Authors should supply an English abstract not exceeding 100 words and the JEL classification number(s).

3. Authors publishing in the journal will be asked to sign an Copyright Transfer Agreement. In signing the form it is assumed that authors have obtained permission to reproduce any copyrighted or previously published material. All authors must read and agree to the conditions outlined in the form, and must sign the form or agree that the corresponding author can sign on their behalf. Articles cannot be published until a signed form has been received.

4. Manuscripts should be typed on one side of the paper only (if submitting hard copy), using standard margins throughout and leaving adequate margins on all sides. All pages should be numbered consecutively, and references and legends for figures should be prepared on separate pages.

5. Where mathematical derivations are abbreviated, the full workings necessary for justifying each step of the argument should accompany all manuscripts of a mathematical nature in order to assist referees. These workings will not be published.

6. In choosing mathematical notation, the following rules should be observed in order to avoid unnecessary delays and reduce printing expenses.

References

Citation of references in the text should be by author(s) followed by parenthesized Arabic numerals indicating the year of publication, as Aitchison and Brown (1957), Arrow (1951, Theorem 1), Perez and Willig (1977b, p. 486), etc.

Online article not yet published in an issue

An online article that has not yet been published in an issue (therefore has no volume, issue or page numbers) can be cited by its Digital Object Identifier (DOI). The DOI will remain valid and allow an article to be tracked even after its allocation to an issue.

9. Manuscripts that do not conform to these requirements may cause unnecessary delay in processing and may have to be returned to the authors.

Author Services enables authors to track their article, once it has been accepted, through the production process to publication online and in print. Authors can check the status of their articles online and choose to receive automated emails at key stages of production so they do not need to contact the production editor to check on progress. Visit http://authorservices.wiley.com/bauthor for more details on online production tracking and for a wealth of resources, including FAQs and tips on article preparation, submission and more.
