

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Manuscripts and editorial communications should be sent to: Gerald C. Timmis, M.D., Editor-in-Chief, William Beaumont Hospital, 3601 W. Thirteen Mile Road, Royal Oak, Michigan 48073. Subscription requests, reprint orders, and other business communications should be sent to: Blackwell Futura Publishing, Inc. 350 Main Street, Malden, MA 02148 USA. The journal seeks communications dealing with cardiac catheterization, angiography, angioplasty, invasive electrophysiology and electrotherapy, mechanical assist devices, thrombolytic therapy, hemodynamic monitoring techniques, and evolving technologies such as lasers, mechanical atherectomy, and implantable devices. It will accommodate original, review, and didactic articles directed to a readership of a variety of interests. Manuscripts submitted to this journal must not be under simultaneous consideration by any other publication and should not have been published elsewhere in substantially similar form. No part of a paper which has been published by The Journal of Interventional Cardiology may be reproduced or published elsewhere without the written permission of the author(s) and the Publisher.

Manuscript Preparation

Manuscripts must be submitted in English in triplicate (one original and two copies) and typed double-spaced on 22 cm × 29 cm (8½" × 11½") white bond paper. This applies to all parts of the manuscript, i.e., references, legends, etc. Liberal margins should be left at the top and bottom, as well as the sides. The manuscript should be submitted in the following order: Title Page, Abstract, Text, References, Tables, Legends, and Figures. Each page, beginning with the abstract, should also include the senior author's surname typed on the upper, left-hand corner. Please note that manuscripts not prepared according to JIC instructions may be returned to the author(s), at the editor's discretion. Papers are considered for publication only after peer review. Once a manuscript is accepted and editorial changes are made, the editor's decision concerning English usage will prevail. The author should not make any changes in the proofs except for corrections of editorial errors, if any, and/or correction of typesetter's errors.

COMPUTER INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUBMISSION OF MANUSCRIPT ON DISK

Requirements:

Authors are encouraged to submit computer diskettes with the final revised versions of their manuscripts. All material should be submitted in a run-in style (do not use double columns). All print commands (e.g., superscript, subscript, italics) should be included on the disk and should also appear on the hardcopy printout. Submit the diskette with a label clearly indicating the journal name, author's name, manuscript title, hardware (IBM or Mac [no DS Mac disks]) and software used (word processing program), and name of the text file. Computer-generated artwork supplied on diskette will be output electronically, whenever possible. EPS, TIFF files capable of being sized are preferred. Please submit figures on a separate diskette specifying the hardware and software (name and version) used. Hard copy of all art should be supplied.

Title Page

—Include full name(s), degree(s), and affiliation(s); of author(s); list under title.

—Give a running title of 3 to 6 words.

—At the bottom of the page, include information about grants, if applicable.

—Add: "Address for reprints: ...," followed by full name, address, and fax number.

Abstract

—Abstract should be after title page and numbered page 1.

—It should not exceed 250 words for major articles; case reports should have abstracts of no more than 100 words.

Text

—The text should follow the abstract and begin on a new page, as should References, Tables, and Legends.

—Abbreviations should be kept to a minimum and must be explained when they first appear; after first use, abbreviations alone may be used. Standard abbreviations should be used for all measurements (see "Style Manuals").

References

—References are identified in the text by arabic numerals in parentheses on the line and should be cited in order. References are typed double-spaced on sheets separate from the text and numbered consecutively in the order in which they are mentioned in the text.

—Journal references must contain inclusive page numbers; book references contain specific page numbers.

—Abstracts are indicated by (abstract) and letters by (letter).

—Abbreviations of journals conform to those used in Index Medicus, National Library of Medicine. The style and punctuation of the references follow the format illustrated below:

Periodical

(List three authors and et al.)

31. Klein LW, Pichard AD, Holt J, et al. Effects of chronic tobacco smoking on the coronary circulation. J Am Coll Cardiol 1983;1:421–426.

Chapter in Book

(Edited by other than author of article)

28. Schiebler GL, Van Mierop LHS, Krovetz LJ. Diseases of the tricuspid valve. In: Moss AJ, Adams F, eds. Heart Disease in Infants, Children and Adolescents. Baltimore: Williams & Wilkins, 1968, pp. 134–139.

Book (personal author or authors)

(All book references should have specific page numbers)

36. Berne E. Principles of Group Treatment. New York: Oxford University Press, 1966, pp. 26–42.

Personal Communications

4. Smith I. December 10, 1986, personal communication.

Tables

—Tables should supplement, but not duplicate, the text.

—Tables should be numbered consecutively in order of appearance in the text.

—Each table must be given an arabic numeral and a title, placed at the top of the page.

—Abbreviations used in the table should be foot-noted and explained in the order in which they appear in the table.

—Any material which is not self-explanatory should be footnoted, as well.

Legends

—Be sure that legends and figures correspond.

—Identify all abbreviations used in a figure.

—Be sure abbreviations used for measurements are standard.

Figures

—Submit either 3 glossy prints or 2 prints and one photocopy, preferably of 13 cm × 18 cm (5" × 7") size.

—On the back of each figure, indicate number, senior author's surname, and top of illustration; all of this should be written lightly with soft, black pencil.

—Submit written permission from the senior author and publisher(s) for any figure which has been published previously.

—Do not use clips on illustrations; submit them in an envelope backed by cardboard.

—Any lettering or scale of measurement used in an illustration must be large enough to be legible in the event of half-size reduction.

—Do not send original artwork, X-rays, or ECGs.

—Photographs in which a patient or other person is identifiable must have written permission from that person. The consent must state specifically what the person is consenting to and what restrictions, if any, the person has placed upon the publication of the photograph. All restrictions must be strictly observed.

—Special arrangements for color illustrations must be made with the publisher at a cost of $850 (U.S.) per page (one side). Reprint orders for articles with color illustrations must be returned with the corrected page proofs. Please contact publisher should you require detailed information for preparing digital art.

Style Manuals

The following two books are recommended as guides in writing scientific papers; they are useful in providing standard abbreviations for measurements and other scientific terms: CBE Style Manual, prepared by the Committee on Form and Style of the Council of Biology Editors, published by the American Institute of Biological Sciences, Arlington, Virginia, 1978.

Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals, prepared by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors, published in N Engl J Med 1997; 336:309–315 and Ann Intern Med 1997; 126:36–47.

The following book is a general, non-scientific style manual: The Elements of Style, Strunk W, Jr. and White EB. Macmillan Publishing Co., Inc., New York, 1972.

Even though manuscripts are peer-reviewed, the author is responsible for all material presented in a paper. The journal disclaims all responsibility for such material. No product or service advertised in this publications is guaranteed or warranted either by the Editors or publisher. Neither the editors nor publisher guarantee any claims made by a manufacturer or an author in regard to a product or service. If a trademark item is named, the name(s) and address(es) of the manufacturer(s) or supplier(s), in addition to the generic name, should be footnoted.
