

CHAPTER 9 Answers to Questions

Question 9.1. One migrant per generation is NOT sufficient to insure that two or more populations are genetically identical. We can see in Figure 9.5 that there is substantial spread of allele frequencies (0.1 to 0.9) in subpopulations connected by $mN=1$.

See answer to Problem 9.2.